Huerta Much as Ever.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—President Wilson and members of the cabinet discussed the Mexican situation briefly today and announced that no change in the attitude of the United States toward the Huerta provisional government had taken place.

Most important to the day's developments from the American standpoint was the departure of President Wilson's special envoy, John Lind, on the battleship Rhode Island with Rear-Admiral Fletcher to investigate conditions at Tampico and Tuxtepec, where the British oil interests have been regarded as in grave danger.

The departure of Mr. Lind is regarded here as an indication that the United States is extremely desirous of averting any hostile move, and that a thorough examination of the situation will be made before any military force from an American warship is landed on Mexican soil.

Assurances have been given by Admiral Fletcher to Gen. Aguilar, in command of the revolutionary forces near Tampico, that there would be no interference with American or other foreign property. Secretary Bryan stated today that Mr. Lind had been authorized to go to Tampico and Tuxtepec with Admiral Fletcher, but that he had been given no special instructions. It was pointed out that Mr. Lind was free to go and come in Mexico as the developments there seemed to demand. When the Rhode Island left Vera Cruz her first destination was Tampico, where she was expected to arrive tomorrow.

The Louisiana, under command of Rear-Admiral Boush, was reported tonight to be at Tampico, while the Nebraska, commanded by Capt. Wood, is at Tuxtepec.

Should untoward conditions develop in the territory, the action to be taken by this government is discretionary with Admiral Fletcher and it is believed here that Mr. Lind has gone with the American warships to make contact with conditions and to make reports as soon as possible.

It became known today that the rumor of an intention of the American commanders to land forces to protect the extensive oil interests at Tampico and Tuxtepec was brought to official notice through the British Consul at Tampico. This officer, on account of the excitement which the report caused in Tampico, notified Sir Lionel Carden, the British Minister in Mexico City, who in turn acquainted Charles O'Shaughnessy.

Although no official reports reached the State Department from the battleships between the Mexican Federal and rebel forces at Juarez, the result of that conflict is awaited with keen interest. The State Department was notified that in anticipation of an attack on Las Vacas in the State of Coahuila, the American Consul at Eagle Pass has sent warning to Americans to leave the town and cross to Del Rio, Tex. Passes, it was reported, are now being required by the Federal authorities from all persons entering and leaving Ciudad Portillo Diaz.

Consul Canada at Vera Cruz reported that the Norwegian steamer Atlantis with twenty-five refugees had left for Galveston. It was also reported that Leandro and Andres Aguilar were among the persons transported on the American battleship from Vera Cruz with the brothers of Francisco Madero.

A CONCESSION TO BELGIANS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 25.—The first bill to be introduced in the new Mexican Congress was one to ratify a concession to Europeans. The Department of Communications sent today to the chamber for ratification a concession to a Belgian syndicate to build 600 miles of narrow gauge railway in Mexico. This was referred to a committee.

The only other matter before Congress today was a measure presented by the War Department providing for reforms in the naval organization. Three thousand rebels have moved eastward from Torreon. According to the War Department they attacked a Federal force under Gen. Arzobispo at Gene Cepeda, about 125 miles east of Torreon, but were repulsed. Forty-five of the rebels killed the line south of Saltillo.

Indians Considered a Grave Danger to the Country than Carranza's Revolution.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NOGALES (Ariz.), Nov. 25.—Information reached here today through Americans coming from the neighborhood of La Dura and La Colorado, Sonora, on the Yaqui River, that Yaqui depredations have begun out again in that region. Dependence reports from various quarters state that a number of Mexicans were robbed and killed, including workmen employed by Americans mining interests at San Xavier, south of Hermosillo. Americans consider the Yaqui trouble more serious to Sonora than the revolution. The State authorities are unable to cope with the Indians who demand lands now mostly held by Americans. It is said. It is reported that 1500 Yaquis are on the warpath, well armed with Krug Jorgensen rifles and plenty of ammunition. A wagon freight train was robbed near Cumuripa and four men killed and many more wounded.

So far as known, only two Federal officers captured since the fighting began have been spared. One of these was a lieutenant, whose father was a major in the rebel army, and upon the appeal of the latter to the commander ordered that his execution be stayed.

Another sub-lieutenant pleaded that he had been impressed into the Federal service, which statement was corroborated by a number of Villa's officers, and he, too, was given a new lease of life.

MORE LOOTING
THAN FIGHTING.*Observer's View of Situation
South of the Border.*A Few Thousand Men Keep Millions in Turmoil.*Small Bands Worst Menace of Unhappy Mexico.

(Fourth article of the series. Copyright, 1913, by The Tribune Company of Chicago.)

In all wars, the world over, and particularly in civil wars, there is always a certain vicious element of the population which takes advantage of the disorder to engage in murder and robbery.

While claiming allegiance to one side or another they belong to neither and are generally summarily punished by the troops of both the contending armies whenever caught. This happened in our civil war.

In the same way the best troops on earth when worn down by a long series of treacherous acts and murders, torture of their wounded and mutilation of their dead, will occasionally take revenge.

However, such conditions are the exception, and bear, as regards both numbers engaged and the acts themselves, but a small part in the campaigns in which the two contending armies seek each other and strive by hard-fought battles to bring about decisive results which end the war.

NO REAL CAMPAIGNS FOUGHT.

In Mexico, since the outbreak of the present revolutionary disturbance, there have not been any real campaigns fought and there are not any being fought now.

The population of Mexico is about 15,000,000. The Federal army does not actually consist at the present time of over 50,000 men. The rebels, who are operating in small bands, probably do not number more than 25,000.

The small bands operating all over the country, and in most cases out for loot and nothing else, though occasionally some rebels, probably do not number more than another 25,000.

In other words, about 100,000 men are keeping a country of 15,000,000 in a state of disorder. These 100,000 are not fighting any real battles which will bring an early settlement of the questions at issue. They are simply looting and committing acts of violence which will bring an early settlement of the questions at issue.

ON SELFISHNESS DEPENDS LOYALTY.

The great majority of the Mexican people are trying to follow their usual occupations as far as circumstances will permit, and as a rule are ready to cry, "Viva Mexico" or "Viva Carranza" with equal enthusiasm, depending upon which side is in possession of the community.

Not that they are indifferent to the outcome and not that they do not hold strong opinions as to the relative merits of the two sides, but because their interest is not sufficiently great to overcome their innate selfishness and to lead them to risk their lives or their property for the cause they profess to believe in.

As a matter of fact, due to the savagery which obtains in both the Federal and the rebel forces, both the lives and the property of non-combatants are from time to time being sacrificed.

OUT FOR REVENGE AND LOOT.

In the majority of the States in Mexico there are numerous bands of from fifty to 200 men each, claiming to be Carranza's army, or the army of the Southern Pacific, or the army of the United States, and really wish for a change for the better, but the majority are out for revenge or consist of the disorderly element of the community who want the chance for wholesale loot.

If Carranza and the main rebel forces should win these bands would remain and still call their lives and property into question.

If there is a mine or any other big industry in the community they will Optimistic.

To Southern Sonora.

Agents of railroads with headquarters here, who received notification yesterday that freight and passenger trains will be received for handling by the Southern Pacific's connection with its Mexican subsidiary at Nogales.

As Hermosillo is Carranza's capital and as he dominates Sonora, the larger part, the opening of the road through his sanction breeds the suspicion that the line of war which he may receive from the border country perhaps inclined his mind to permitting the resumption of service.

Nevertheless, the big fact to the railroad world is that the Southern Pacific of Mexico is now partially open, and the line of war which he may receive from the border country perhaps inclined his mind to permitting the resumption of service.

frequently lay for the paymaster and rob him on his way there or else visit the mine about pay day and demand a large sum of money.

If they run into a traveler of any kind they will relieve him of his arms, pocketbook, baggage, nearly always of his shoes, and occasionally of his clothes.

They rob the ranches in their vicinity and frequently murder the inhabitants, who, incidentally, in many parts of the country deserve it. These are the bands that commit the punishment of the guilty was so brutal that it could not be put in print.

DEMAND GIRLS' HONOR FOR RANSOM.

One of these bands captured a small town near San Luis Potosi. An American girl, the daughter of an American citizen, was taken and several other girls were taken in the church tower. They were up there three days and three nights, the rebel leaders offering the father his life and other inducements if he would give the girl up to him for a few hours.

Word of the situation reached San Luis Potosi, and the father refused to do anything. A number of Americans and Englishmen got together, virtually seized a railway car, and went out to rescue them. Credit must also be given the Mexican priest of the church, who did a great deal to prevent the rebels from capturing the girls.

The rebels frequently hold up passenger trains. In some cases they take nothing but arms, other cases they take everything they can lay their hands on, order the passengers out of the coaches and burn the train.

Many Mexicans have had narrow escapes. One ranch owner was in bed when a rebel band arrived. He hid under the bed and was not seen by the rebels. The rebels found his clothing, watch and money alongside the bed.

Fortunately for him they were already partially drunk and proceeded to become fully so. While they were thus, he slipped out of the room and made no thorough search. Two of them, while drinking his liquor, sat on the box under which he was hiding and told each other what they would do if they caught him.

He was under the box for over two hours, and was so afraid to move that he was cramped from his position. After he got across the border to the United States, he was questioned by two Americans, one of whom passed as the owner of the car and the other as the driver. He was told to get out of the car and claim to be the chauffeur.

A Mexican hold-up is not a pleasant affair. The robber is a man, and he is not a man of the law. He is a man of the law, and he is not a man of the law.

The Federal press is full of the terrible atrocities committed by the rebels, but a large part of this is absolutely untrue. The rebels are generally fairly good order, and are in the larger rebel forces operating with some military end in view.

A force such as the rebel one, which as a rule receives no pay and has no supply departments, has to live off the country. This means the seizure of cattle, horses, food supplies and clothing. This is within the laws of war.

arms across his breast and said, "Shoot, you—!" which they did. When the rebel attack on a town is a certainty, the Federal authorities immediately arrest every prominent citizen suspected in any way of Carranza's tendencies. If they cannot get them out of town they generally execute them. If they can get them out they send them to Mexico City, where they are tried for sedition.

Manufactured evidence in the shape of incriminating papers found in their houses, even in their prison cells, is no unusual thing.

SEND MADEROS TO CAPITAL.

In Monterey the Federals arrested, among others, two of the Maderos and an Aguilar who is a relation, sending them to Mexico City. Later they burned the Aguilar house, saying that there had been firing from it during the fighting.

To make their story more realistic they scattered cartridges around the house so that the neighbors could hear them go off as the house burned. Incidentally, they hanged the family physician to the nearest telegraph pole.

The day after the fighting ceased there was a large number of Federal troops around the National Railway station. A civilian of the poorest class, who had been wounded in the leg, was dragging himself along. While opposite a group of officers he fell to the ground, moaning. Before long one of the officers turned toward him and rescued him. With an air of annoyance, then called a soldier and told him to kill the man for him. The sergeant did so by blowing the wounded man's brains out.

ONE WAY TO RECOVER LOOT.

The Federal method of recovering loot is to go through the houses of the lower class and remove everything of value on the principle that poor people couldn't own such articles. Everything is taken to a central point, where owners may recover by proving their ownership.

This method undoubtedly recovers a good deal of loot, but it also is a splendid opportunity, not lost by any means, for the looting of the poor.

The looters are sure the Federals are in control, and they have taken into the street in front of other people's houses. The owners of these houses then run out and place their things in front of some one else's house.

In Monterey there was a piano which appeared one morning at the door of the Calles Union and was by nightfall had been shoved along something over a mile.

As the Federal government has been embarrassed financially, it has endeavored to raise several loans, threatening compulsion if found necessary. It is only a question of time till such forced loans will be raised.

The Federals usually shoot or hang, sometimes both, all rebels or suspected rebels. Sometimes the lower class rebels or suspects are put into the Federal army as militia men.

MEXICANS SEMI-BARBAROUS.

The truth of the matter is that the Mexicans as a whole are still semi-barbarous. The blood of the Aztecs, who believed in human sacrifices to such an extent that they sacrificed 20,000 people during the dedication of the great Teotihuacan in Mexico City, is still in the blood of the Spaniards, who under Alvarado treacherously attacked the Aztecs while guests at their May festival, besides committing many other cruelties. They would have to be greatly purified before it could be counted as civilized.

The history of Mexico shows that neither by mixing with better blood nor by education and training has any such purification taken place.

HUERTA SAYS HE CONTROLS.

Mexican President Declares He Can Give Full Protection to the Oil Regions.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A dispatch bearing on the situation in the Mexican oilfields, has been received in this city from Victoriano Huerta, provisional President of Mexico.

Limited to the oil regions, Huerta says officially that his government controls the oil regions of Tamaulipas, Tampico and Tuxtepec and affords full protection to the territory specified. The provisional President declares he will suppress the present revolution.

"Our account of Huerta's message," are not of great importance; such reverses are inseparable from any armed struggle of such great duration.

BATTLE IS FOUGHT NEAR LAS VACAS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DEL RIO (Tex.), Nov. 25.—An indecisive battle, marked by heavy losses on both sides, was fought by Mexican government troops from Piedras Negras and the Constitutionalists at Las Vacas, Coahuila, this morning. This led to the belief that the rebels expect to evacuate Las Vacas.

Before the fighting began the Constitutionalists put to the torch all property supposed to belong to Federal sympathizers.

The opposing forces numbered about 400 men each. Col. Alberto Guajardo commanded the Federals, and Col. Hivas the Constitutionalists. It is reported tonight that another Federal column from Piedras Negras was advancing up the Rio Grande.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BROWNVIEW (Tex.), Nov. 25.—Preparations to extend the Constitutional campaign into south central Mexico were indicated in an official announcement from rebel headquarters at Matamoros today.

According to this announcement, the command and staff of Gen. Lucio Blanco will leave tomorrow to occupy the State of Jalisco. More than 1000 men, all mounted, will make the overland trip. Gen. Blanco, now with Carranza in Sonora for a conference, will join his men later.

Gen. Jesus Carranza in Matamoros, and Gen. Pablo Gonzales in Victoria will remain in command of Constitutional troops in the State of Tamaulipas.

White House Wedding.

The latter's white surplice made a sharp contrast to the dark vestment of his colleague.

There was a pause of a minute and soon the Marine band played through the White House the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and the groom, accompanied by Dr. Willard T. Grenfell, his best man, walked slowly to the altar.

The bride, wearing a gown of white silk, followed slowly down the corridor that bleats the lower floor of the White House and enters the East Room at its center.

Miss Eleanor Wilson, the youngest of the President's daughters, and Miss Mary White were first, followed by Miss Adeline Mitchell Scott and Miss Marjorie Brown. All wore piquant little bonnets with upstanding frills of silver lace.

Miss Margaret Wilson, the eldest daughter and maid of honor, wore a pale pink. All carried pink roses.

The bride's train was carried and passed as it moved slowly into the East Room, and there was a whispered exclamation, "Beautiful!" from the many lips at the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, came with measured step down the aisle and stopped before the altar.

The bride wore a diamond brooch on a long platinum chain, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of lily of the valley.

BRIDAL GOWN WHITE SATIN.

SOFT WEAVE AND OF A VERY LUSTROUS QUALITY.

The Skirt Was the Modish Draped One, With the Fullness Showing Most on the Left Flank—The Neck Was Cut Out a Little and Sleeves Were Fitted.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The bride's gown at the White House wedding today was of white satin, a soft weave, but of a light and very lustrous quality.

Real point lace, orange blossoms and embroidery added elegance and beauty. The skirt was the modish draped one, the fullness showing most on the left front.

The neck was cut out a little and the embroidery, of an orange blossom design, outlined the opening and also extended down the side front of the bodice and the skirt.

The sleeves were finished off with frills of the point lace.

The lace also appeared in the draped waist and where the folds were caught it was with tiny clusters of orange blossoms. The bride's flower also held the draped folds on the skirt.

The train was very long—long enough for regulation court use—and was cut square at the end.

The tulle bridal veil almost fell to the length of the train. It was held to the coiffure by a cap of point lace, similar to the lace trimming the dress.

The Dutch cap style of veil arrangement was exceedingly becoming to the bride, whose fair hair, very smoothly dressed in coils close to the head, gave just the right effect.

Orange blossoms sprayed the lace and formed something of a wreath around the head.

The pink color scheme of the wedding found its loveliest expression in the bridesmaid's dresses. The maid of honor and the four bridesmaids wore dresses and hats made of pink tulle, with varying in shade.

The maid of honor wore the palest pink of any, a shell net so delicate that it seemed almost transparent.

Two of the bridesmaids wore deep rose and the dresses of the other two were of a medium shade of pink.

The bridesmaids' dresses were preserved around the hem of the draped skirts, but a more beautiful effect was apparent around the waist line and hips.

The dresses were all of charming lace and the chignon over-drapery was in the exact shade of silver.

These costumes were worn with moderate-sized hats trimmed with silver lace and made of pink moire.

Mrs. Wilson, the wife of the President, wore the most elaborate gown in which she has thus far been seen in the White House.

The shade was a color very becoming to her, because of her clear complexion and cheeks. The material was velvet brocade chignon with eren lace and pink tail trimming.

Under the lace a band of old blue and gold brocade showed and the soft colors in this combination were reproduced in the corsage bouquet worn at the left waist line.

The lace, which was very simple, fell in a cascade from the waist to the hem in front and caught back the drapery at the left side. A sash also made of the lace fell at the back, the ends being bordered with pink tulle.

The bride's going away suit was a girlish costume of hunter's green shibbole, with a waist in the same shade of character. The latter was ornamented with embroidery in green tones and a brightening shade. Her hat was of green moire and stiff bows of velvet made the trimming.

SOME VERY SMART GOWNS AT THE WILSON WEDDING.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Many beautiful and artistic gowns lent color and brilliancy to the White House wedding this afternoon. There had been absolutely no information abroad as to who was asked to the wedding until the fortunate ones had their invitations in hand.

Then all the women hidden had at once to turn their attention to gowns and hats. This brought together some of the latest creations from the leading American and foreign centers of fashion, and some of the smartest motives of the very last moment were therefore worn today at the White House.

Madame Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps and an American, it will be recalled, had the honor place with her husband in the space allotted in the East Room to the diplomats.

She wore black and white satin, a tunic of black chiffon, black and white chiffon forming the bodice. Her hat was reasonably large, a mode she likes, and its trimming was white plumes.

Lady Spitzer-Slice, wife of the German Ambassador, who has but recently returned from abroad, wore a brown and gold damask. The smart mingling tints in chiffon in the bodice had touches of fur as well.

Her hat brought in another color, a soft violet shade in velvet. Lady Spitzer-Slice, wife of the British Ambassador, and a newcomer to the present make-up of Washington society, wore one of the most elegant costumes seen. It was of champagne of a dull gold shade, the skirt bordered with an embroidered band of chiffon in which, several soft colors showed.

The skirt had some of the most beautiful of the panther effect and the embroidered chiffon was used in the make of the bodice. Her hat had a top matching the dress and had an ostrich feather the same shade as the left side. She wore a splendid set of martin fur as a wrap.

Madame Calderon, wife of the Bolivian Minister, wore a Paris costume of black velvet, with an embroidered satin band around the skirt. The black velvet tunic was edged with skunk and that fur also appeared in the trimming of the black over a white chiffon blouse.

A short coat was of black velvet and her small black hat had a high, white plume at one side.

Madame Havens, wife of the Belgian Minister, wore a gown of black satin with point d'anglaise lace on the corsage and a black lace hat.

Madame Castille, wife of the Nicaraguan Minister, wore a black velvet costume with lace on the bodice and a large black velvet hat trimmed with ostrich feathers.

Madame Suarez, wife of the Minister from Chile, wore a handsome black velvet costume with lace on the bodice and a large black velvet hat.

Madame Bryn, wife of the Minister from Norway, wore a gown of black velvet and cream color lace with a black hat.

Madame de Milano, wife of the Spanish Minister, wore a smart costume of black velvet and white lace. The skirt was draped and the waist finished with tulle and white lace. Her hat was of black velvet.

Madame de la Vega-Caldor, wife of the Cuban Charge d'Affaires, wore black charmeuse trimmed with embroidered lace and jets, a large red velvet rose at the belt, three ostrich plumes and large diamond brooch, and a black velvet hat with white ostrich plumes.

Madame Perynde, wife of the Minister from the Dominican Republic, wore a mahogany-colored costume, trimmed with black fur. Her black velvet hat was trimmed with fur.

Madame Ali Kull Kahn, wife of the Persian Charge d'Affaires, wore mid-night blue chiffon over satin the same shade. Her velvet hat matched in shade. She wore her pearls and a set of dark furs.

Mrs. Garrison, wife of the Secretary of War, wore sage green silk poplin, trimmed with point de Venice lace and bands of sable fur. Her hat was small, matched in color and was trimmed with fur and ostrich feathers.

Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, wore brown charmeuse and chiffon trimmed with mink fur and her hat had a high, white plume at one side.

Mrs. Wilson, the wife of the President, wore the most elaborate gown in which she has thus far been seen in the White House. The shade was a color very becoming to her, because of her clear complexion and cheeks. The material was velvet brocade chignon with eren lace and pink tail trimming.

How to Make the Best Cough Remedy at Home A Family Supply at Small Cost, and Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 1/2 pint of warm water and stir for 5 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (a fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three times a day.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold at once, and it usually cures an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, bronchial asthma, whooping cough and spasmodic croup.

This method of making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is now used in more homes than any other cough syrup. This explains why it is often imitated though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinaldine and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WHY THE DEAL WAS ABANDONED.

WITNESS SAYS BELL SYSTEM BROKE ITS PLEDGE.

Robinson Declares Proposed Merger Between the American Telephone Company and Independents Stopped When the Former Purchased Kansas City Concern.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—George W. Robinson, of St. Paul, Minn., vice-president of the Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, testified today before the special examiner hearing the government anti-trust suit against the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, that the proposed merger between the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the 20,000 independent companies was abandoned after the independents learned that the American company had absorbed the Kansas City Home Telephone Company in violation of a trust agreement.

Robinson said he was one of the committee of seven appointed by the independents to negotiate with the Bell system.

Plans were under consideration for an arrangement of the independents into twenty classes and an appraisal of their properties, said Robinson, when he went to New York with his colleagues, there to confer with Theodore N. Vail, president of the American company, and the American company director and member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., who had guaranteed that the Morgan interests would finance the merger.

"While we were in New York for this conference early in 1911," said Robinson, "we learned that the Bell system had purchased the Kansas City independent company. This violation of their pledge to buy no more independents while the merger negotiations were being considered, had the effect of putting an end to the deal."

MONEY LOST.

An "immense sum" in possible telephone profits has been lost to the telephone companies in this country by "destructive competition" between independent systems and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the public has been told by the war between the independents and the Bell system and it was to put an end to this situation that a $40,000,000 merger of independent companies was proposed by the American company, backed by the Morgan financial power.

This was the substance of the testimony of Ernest B. Fisher, secretary of the Citizens Telephone Company of Grand Rapids, Mich. Fisher said that the merger proposition was put into words by Theodore N. Vail, president of the American company, and that H. P. Davison, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., told the sixty or seventy independent telephone men present that the "house of Morgan" was prepared to guarantee the financing of any proposition made by the American company. This took place at the meeting here December 10, 1910, to which the members of the Independent Telephone Association, then in convention here, were summoned by a message that Vail was in the city and desirous of meeting them to talk merger.

Fisher said that he had opposed the merger proposition as "improper" and financially bad. Telephone rates rise to unjustified proportions as soon as competition is eliminated, he said. After the establishment of competition in Grand Rapids, he said, telephone rates were placed at $25 a year, a rate which enabled a subscriber to have both systems for $75 a year. In Springfield, Mass., Fisher stated where the Bell system has no competition, the rate is $12 a year for one telephone, and in Albany, N. Y., it is $9 a year for one telephone.

The Citizens' Company, according to Fisher, is another independent which is on its feet and thriving under Bell competition.

SCORES HURT BY EXPLOSION.

PITTSBURGH SHAKEN BY BLAST OF SEWER GAS.

Buildings in the Lawrenceville Section Are Damaged for Several Miles and Thousands of Windows Are Shattered—Many Water Mains Break, Undermining the Houses.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Nov. 25.—A score or more persons were injured, many windows were broken and a number of buildings shaken by an explosion of gas in a sewer in the Lawrenceville district of Pittsburgh late today. The property loss will amount to thousands of dollars.

Buildings were damaged and persons injured within a radius of three miles. Thousands of windows were shattered and two dwelling-houses collapsed. A sewer lid weighing eight pounds was blown through a city fire engine-house. Three large tanks containing thousands of gallons of gasoline were overturned in the yards of the Petroleum Products Company and the fluid poured into the wrecked sewers. Danger of a second explosion caused the city authorities to order all lights in the district extinguished except those operated by electricity.

A furnace filled with molten metal at the Cold Rolled Steel Company's plant was upset and the mill caught fire.

Water mains in various parts of the district were broken, flooding the streets and undermining scores of buildings. Many families were ordered to vacate the houses before they collapsed.

Shortly after the explosion, Director of Public Works W. Y. English, Director of Public Health John S. Herron and the entire Councilman body visited the scene. That sewer gas had caused the accident was not doubted but at what point and how it was ignited could not be ascertained.

At a special meeting of Council tonight the various department heads were authorized to employ as many men as needed to clear away the debris. Lime and other disinfectants were ordered used in the district.

How is Your Weight?
While it is true that too much weight is not to be desired yet the fact remains that many men and women are thin to the point of danger. This danger lies in their having no reserve force or reserve power to combat deadly diseases. A little extra flesh is needed by all to feel well and to look well, and this is usually the question of how best to increase the weight. Physicians and chemists by experiments have solved the problem of increasing the white and red corpuscles of the blood by the administration of 3 grain hypo-nutrient tablets, and this is usually followed by an increase of weight. ## The President's Daughter on her wedding day received from the members of the United States Senate a complete set of Sterling Silver in the "CONCORD" Pattern, which as best we can we illustrate above.

In our center window we are displaying for a few days duplicate pieces of this beautiful pattern just as the bride received it from the members of the Senate. We regard the selection of this particular pattern, "The Concord," by the United States Senators as their personal present to the bride, not only as a strong compliment to this chaste and elegant design, but as we take it, a bouquet thrown at ourselves.

We introduced the "Concord" in Los Angeles. We have constantly and continually urged its sale to the people of Los Angeles as one of the best designs in silver ever produced by American talent. It's a strictly American product—designed by an American—made in Concord, N. H.

If you are at all interested in viewing duplicates of Miss Wilson's wedding present from the United States Senate, we would like after you have seen our window display, for you to come in and get a little folder we have ready for you giving illustrations of the different pieces and a list of all the pieces we carry in stock. Just now it will be very interesting to you.

Let Us Whisper Softly—In the past we have supplied more than one young bride in Los Angeles with wedding pieces from this beautiful Concord pattern. Possibly you would like some pieces of the Concord pattern for your Christmas gift. 'Twould be a royal gift of merit and lasting usefulness.

One word more—You can buy any piece in this set from a single teaspoon at $1.00 on up to the complete dinner service.

COLE FOLLOWS MACKAY

Construction Superintendent at the Leavenworth Penitentiary. Resigned upon McKelvey's suggestion.
(BY A. P. MONT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) Nov. 25.—
Alva Cole, superintendent of construction at the Federal penitentiary here, resigned today a few hours after the arrival of H. H. McKelvey, special agent of the Department of Justice. Cole said Atty.-Gen. McKelvey suggested he resign, as there might be improvement in the construction department with his retirement.
McKelvey was sent here after the receipt in Washington of charges preferred against Robert W. Laddow, superintendent of prisoners and president of the Federal Parole Board, by W. H. Mackay, who at the request of the Attorney-General resigned several months ago from the position of deputy warden of the penitentiary.
Mackay's charges were made in a letter to Atty.-Gen. McKelvey dated November 8, last. A copy of the letter was sent to President Wilson.
As shown by a copy of the letter, Mackay charged that Laddow is "arrogant, negligent, extravagant, incompetent and visionary," and that he "shows favoritism between prisoners."

NO SELF RESPECTING GROUP OF PEOPLE SHOULD BE WITHOUT A GOOD FAMILY LAXATIVE.

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of a cold a simple laxative-remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort. Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

Thousands of good American homes are never without it among them the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright, 1831 Pasadena Ave., Long Beach, Cal. She had considerable trouble raising little Lawrence, three years old, but after regulating his bowels with small doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he began to thrive and she has had no further trouble with him. We use it generally in her home.

Syrup Pepsin saves the health of the family, and it saves doctors' bills. It is a guaranteed cure for any form of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, gas on the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating, etc. Have no hesitancy about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

A bottle can be obtained at any nearby drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is more economical and is bought by those who have already convinced themselves of its merits. Syrup Pepsin cleans the blood, purges the bowels, and restores the system generally, as well as to great a shock to any average system.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 413 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

COLE FOLLOWS MACKAY

Construction Superintendent at the Leavenworth Penitentiary. Resigned upon McKelvey's suggestion. (BY A. P. MONT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) Nov. 25.—Alva Cole, superintendent of construction at the Federal penitentiary here, resigned today a few hours after the arrival of H. H. McKelvey, special agent of the Department of Justice. Cole said Atty.-Gen. McKelvey suggested he resign, as there might be improvement in the construction department with his retirement. McKelvey was sent here after the receipt in Washington of charges preferred against Robert W. Laddow, superintendent of prisoners and president of the Federal Parole Board, by W. H. Mackay, who at the request of the Attorney-General resigned several months ago from the position of deputy warden of the penitentiary. Mackay's charges were made in a letter to Atty.-Gen. McKelvey dated November 8, last. A copy of the letter was sent to President Wilson. As shown by a copy of the letter, Mackay charged that Laddow is "arrogant, negligent, extravagant, incompetent and visionary," and that he "shows favoritism between prisoners."

NO SELF RESPECTING GROUP OF PEOPLE SHOULD BE WITHOUT A GOOD FAMILY LAXATIVE.

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of a cold a simple laxative-remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort. Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Department of Justice today filed in the United States Supreme Court its brief in the "pre-cooling and pre-icing case."

California citrus fruit growers had pre-cooled and pre-iced their fruits under a tariff issued by the railroad. The latter charged $30 a car for the privilege. The Interstate Commerce Commission found this charge exorbitant, as the roads performed no service except to receive, transport and deliver cars, for which they charged usual transportation rates.

An order was entered by the Interstate Commerce Commission reducing the $30 charge to $7.50. Trunk lines out of California contested the order on the ground that pre-icing of cars was a transportation service which they alone had the right to perform. After two unsuccessful hearings before the commission and three unsuccessful hearings before the commerce court, the roads appealed to the Supreme Court.

If the ruling of the Commerce Court is affirmed by the Supreme Court nearly $300,000 will be saved annually to California fruit shippers.

JAMES HAZEN HYDE MARRIES.
Former Equitable Director Weds
Countess de Gontaut-Biron, Daughter of John G. A. Leishman.

[IT CAME AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.] PARIS, Nov. 25.—James Hazen Hyde, formerly director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was married here today to Countess Louise de Gontaut-Biron, daughter of John G. A. Leishman, formerly American Ambassador to Germany. The ceremony took place in the American Church of the Holy Trinity, the Rector Dr. Samuel Watson, officiating. The only guests present were the bride's mother, the Duke and Duchess de Croix (the bride's father), Ambassador and Mrs. Myron T. Herrick, and a few other intimate friends.

The bride was attended by Princess Guy de Faucigny Lucigne, formerly Miss Nativity Terry. She was given away by her brother-in-law, the Duke of Croix, in the absence of her father, who is in the United States. Ambassador Herrick acted as best man. The civil ceremony had been previously performed at the office of the Mayor of the Sixteenth Arrondissement. [IT CAME AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.] COLOGNE (Germany) Nov. 25.—The Russian government has protested against the sending of a German military mission to Constantinople to take charge of the reorganization of the Turkish army, according to an inspired dispatch from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette.

The dispatch says the matter was discussed in a friendly way during the recent visit of Premier Kokovoff in Berlin and that negotiations on the subject are still in progress.

The Waltham Watch

Is Representative of the Feagans & Co. Ideal

RETAIL institution is no more dependable than the individual articles it sells to its patrons—the institutional character is simply the composite character of everything that forms its stocks.

That was the sentiment that inspired the establishment of this store. Our Diamonds—our jewelry—our silver—our stationery—our clocks and our watches have been selected all with the one thought of their equal worthiness in contributing to the composite integrity of this institution.

In particular, we repeatedly emphasize the high dependability of the Waltham watch—representative of the greatest degree of perfection to which the art of American watch-making has yet been carried.

Waltham watches are, first of all, instruments of precision—but they combine with precision such beauty of case, such variety of design and size and style as rarely are offered in any other.

We have them from $4 up to $800 and more, for men and women—also for boys and girls—in all of the latest models and sizes.

Platinum diamond-set blue-enamel cased Waltham, with gem set chain attached, $800; ultra thin, 17 Lines, 21
Jewel Maximum in platinum case, $340; gold case, $190.
The Riverside series, $40 to $250; Full jeweled grades in 25 year filled cases at $24; 7 Jewel, 20-year case, for men and women, specially priced at $10.

It will be a pleasure to show you the many beautiful models and demonstrate the superiority of this master-time-piece.

The street car started again and then stopped. Snowden was met by a traffic officer, who told him he had violated the ordinance requiring an auto to stop ten feet behind a standing street car. Believing that he had been arrested and yet being unable to discern where he had violated a law, Snowden appeared yesterday only to learn that his act had not been considered sufficiently grave to warrant the filing of a charge.

BABE REAMS HAS A UNIQUE PLAN.

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 10. (Exclusive Dispatch.) Babe Reams will not be a member of the Portland team next year, but he has come forward with a unique offer to the Portland manager.

The difference between the local manager and the Reams owner is that the Reams owner is willing to pay the amount in cash. Reams is a good, but not willing to come through with the cash now. In a letter, Reams says that he is wintering at Santa Rosa, Cal., and wants to put up half of the $100,000, while the Portland manager will advance the other $100,000.

This new offer has been presented to the Portland manager.

Pacific Electric Permit Goes Over Temporarily.

Water Plant Makes Money First Year.

PASADENA, Nov. 25.—Pasadena's year-old commission form of government was the material for discussion at last night's banquet of the Twilight Club at the Maryland Hotel. The speakers were City Commissioners Metcalf, Allen, Hamilton and Loughery. Each carefully outlined the work that falls under his special jurisdiction, and dwelt on affairs of the city in general.

"I have no complaint of the way I have been treated by the people," said Commissioner Metcalf, who is president of the commission and of the city, "On the other hand, many have come to my office to say that they are pleased at the way the Commissioners have handled things. We can't please all, and I am glad of that, for I should hate to be one to permit some of the things that some who find fault with us advocate."

Commissioner Allen told how the commission is striving hard to give the people of the city "as much as possible" for the taxes they are willing to pay.

"We have started out easy," he said, "for we wanted to be in your good graces, but we shall turn you down on a lot of things before the year is over. We will have to get through."

The dinner was attended by about sixty and was one of the most interesting meetings the club has ever had. Mr. Matt E. Hughes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, presided as toastmaster.

CHEAT PETER TO PAY PAUL.

Though yesterday was the day set by the City Commission to grant permission to the Pacific Electric Railway Company to relay its tracks on North Lake avenue, no action was taken.

Commissioner Allen explained that, much as he would like to see the company, which the commission a short time ago threatened with a fine because it had not completed its work on South Raymond avenue in the time the ordinance allowed, relay the tracks on Lake avenue without further delay, nothing would be gained by compelling it to do the work, as it would only mean that a crew would be taken from some other part of the city, where the pavement is torn up.

The tracks on North Lake avenue are in a bad condition and residents there have long been clamoring for level rails, instead of those over which they now ride, they say, much as if they were in a boat.

The commission yesterday voted to go ahead with the plan it has had under consideration of having a preliminary survey for a proposed new railroad between Pasadena and Los Angeles. The work is to be done at once.

But while this order was made yesterday, the commission also voted formally to advise the Pacific Electric Railway Company of its intention and to suggest that if the company has any plans as to materially improving the service it would be glad to hear of them.

MAKES A SHOWING.

A report submitted to the City Commission yesterday morning by Commissioner Salisbury shows that the city water department closed the first year of its existence with a surplus of $17,486.61 to its credit. This is after paying all expenses for the year and allowing $40,000 for depreciation. Commissioner Salisbury believes to be a fair estimate.

The current receipts of the department for the year totaled $148,484.52, of which $125,516.79 was for water revenue and $13,798.80 was derived from all other sources of revenue. The total current expense was $171,619.58.

BRINGING 'EM IN.

The campaign for new members of the Tournament of Roses Association will end next Saturday night, when the two teams, the men's team and the women's team, will bring their respective reports.

The two teams have vied with each other to see which would bring in the largest percentage of the 1920 new members that the organization has set itself to get, so that the tournament this year may be bigger and better than ever before.

L. H. Turner is captain of the men's team and Mrs. Turner is captain of the women's team. The association is giving with each membership $3 worth of tickets as an extra inducement to enroll.

STARTS AFTER HER CHILD.

Believing that her husband has taken their little girl, which he took from the Pasadena Day Nursery several days ago, despite the resistance of the nurse in charge of that institution, Mrs. E. E. Waller, who is employed at the Rose Tree Tea House, yesterday started for the city in an effort to regain the possession of her child.

There is a divorce suit brought by the husband, pending, in which the wife has asked for a change of venue.

PREACHER DECLINES JOB.

South Pasadena Regimes Are Pleased But Prosperous. While the search goes on—Bridges News.

SOUTH PASADENA, Nov. 25.—Notice has been received from Rev. Shew of Massachusetts that he will be unable to accept the pastorate of the Memorial Baptist Church of this city. The church is now continuing its search.

Norman P. Marsh is chairman and he and his assistants are making every effort to secure a pastor. Until one is engaged, Rev. E. H. Emmett, head of the spiritual center of the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A., has agreed to preach at the church every Sunday, both morning and evening. In spite of the fact that the church has been without a pastor for several months, the church work was never in better condition.

Good music is being made a feature of the service and it is expected that Miller, the famous harpist, will be present next Sunday evening.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Friday evening, December 4, will be celebrated by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church as the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Los Angeles Coast branch of the national society. The celebration will take the form of an evening entertainment, to which guests will be invited from the other branches of the society.

Plans for a Christmas celebration for the old ladies in the Ransome Home in Highland Park, were made yesterday by the women of the local W.C.T.U., who met at the home of Mrs. Julia King, No. 1317 Spruce street. Each year the women hold their Christmas meeting at the home, so that the inmates can be present and they always plan an entertainment and a surprise for the old women.

Mrs. Alice Hinchey is in charge of the arrangements this year, and all of the local members will co-operate with her. The meeting will be held the afternoon of Nov. 27, at 7 o'clock, and will be a very festive affair.

Thanksgiving tea was served this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ransome, No. 722 Bank street, to the members of the Marriage Parent-Teacher Association. This is the first time the association has been given by the association, and was strictly informal in character. A program of readings and music had been arranged for the afternoon, but they busied themselves with dainty fancy work. Tea was served and assisted by Mrs. Ransome and her daughter, Mrs. David A. Vall, president of the federated associations of this city.

BUILDING A GREAT HATCHERY.

Completed Plant Will Cost Big Sum and Provide Trout for the Multitude.

REDLANDS, Nov. 25.—W. E. Neff and C. H. Scott, who are engaged in building the Cedar Springs trout hatchery at Forest Home, No. 722 Bank street, are making rapid progress. The hatchery will cost $30,000, and will be the largest trout hatchery in the State. Already $5000 has been expended on one of the stone buildings, and work is well advanced on the other. In January, 1,000,000 rainbow trout eggs will be brought from Salt Lake City and placed in the hatchery. The following January the hatchery will be in full operation, and the trout will be grown to sell in Los Angeles, but guests at Forest Home will be able to fish from the streams.

The Chamber of Commerce met this afternoon and took steps to make an active campaign in behalf of the proposed county bond issue for building roads. Considerable opposition has developed toward the bonds here because no provision is made in the plan approved by the County Highway Commission for building a direct road between this city and Riverside. The road project will be by way of Colton. Some citizens think Redlands has not been given as large a share of the money to be raised as she is entitled to. However, the opposition does not appear to be pronounced.

NOT TOO DARK; MAY BE DARK.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 25.—

L. B. Johnson, of this city, who according to press dispatches from the East, has written the story and says that he wrote the letter on advice of Leo Anderson of Fresno, who a year and a half ago secured a wife by this means, Miss Ella Alvin.

Johnson pondered over the advice and when he came to Long Beach a few months ago to join his brother, an engineer at the Edison plant, he wrote the letter. Johnson's specifications are that the girl must not be over 20, good looking, a fair cook and willing to start life with one who will be a good husband. She may be fair or dark, but not too dark. Any girl with red hair is taboo.

Johnson is a fireman and electrician by trade, a big husky fellow of a bright disposition and says that his friend's success convinces him that he may be equally fortunate in drawing a prize.

FRUIT RIPS SLOWLY.

No Shipments From Orange County Probable Before December 10, Short News Stories.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 25.—But few oranges will be shipped from Orange county before December 10. The citrus growers' associations seem to have set that date as the time when they will commence operations for the holiday trade. Some of the independent growers do not expect to wait that long. The McInnes Packing-house at Orange is now packing its third car of navel for this season. The first car has been started for Canada.

Fruit has been coming slowly, and as a rule oranges are not as well marketed at this time as last year's navel were at Thanksgiving.

The Orange county crop is in good condition and while shipments for the holiday trade will be later than usual in starting, several dozen carloads will go East for the Christmas trade.

BOND ISSUE IS FAVORED.

San Bernardino Merchants' Association Favors It.

Petitions Asking that Bid Be Raised Ready.

Prosperity Indicated by Rush to Pay Taxes.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 25.—This morning at the most largely attended meeting of the Merchants' Protective Association held in the city in some years, the members voted to endorse the proposed county road bond issue of $1,750,000 for the construction of a system of county highways of modern type.

The highway system as laid out will give this city twelve paved boulevards leading out in as many directions, and make this city the center of a comprehensive highway system that will reach to every portion of the city.

The campaign for the highway bonds is now well under way throughout the county and the boosters confidently expect they will be carried by a substantial vote on December 17.

CONSIDERATE JUDGE.

D. J. Hart, who has served three terms in the penitentiary, was today admitted to probation by Judge Patton after hearing the evidence against him for passing worthless checks at Colton. It is probably the first time probation has ever been given to a third-termer.

His probation, however, is short lived, as the court supplemented this action by stating that Hart should be in the place him in the asylum as an inmate will be at once taken.

Hart has twice been sent up from Alameda county and once previously from this county, every time for passing bad checks while drunk. Judge Patton said that treatment for his insanity was the most logical manner in which to handle his case.

About 1500 names have been secured on the petitions asking for a referendum vote on the ordinance opening up the gambling conditions, also raising the limit from the number of saloons in the city. A third petition has been circulated asking a vote in the city under the terms of the Volstead Act relative to the liquor question, but this is not to be filed if the Council takes action called for by the petitions.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Council Power Committee yesterday turned down the power companies' recent offer, presented an ultimatum and outlined the foundation for future dickering on specific lease and agreement to sell.

Although the row in the Harbor Commission was discussed at yesterday's meeting, the session was quite peaceful and no outbursts echoed the criticisms of Commissioners Glimmer and Gordon.

The Board of Park Commissioners yesterday endorsed the widening of West First street and an aqueduct over Silver Lake parkway, saying the improvement will open a great traffic artery.

The Police Commission yesterday voted to withhold permits from certain dance halls where vulgar dances have been conducted.

An agreement alleged to have been drawn up fifty-two years ago, covering the inheritance of a boy, is a unique exhibit in the Superior Court to establish heirship to a large estate. Another claim, based on a baking powder king and his wife, now separated, growing out of contempt proceedings, came to an end in the divorce court yesterday, with the former winning a point.

Testifying in her annulment suit yesterday, "Queenie Mack" said she was coerced into marriage by a threat that a friend who was alleged to have broken his parole could be sent back to prison.

At the City Hall.

CITY'S OFFER IS AN ULTIMATUM.

COUNTER PROPOSITION ON POWER IS SUBMITTED.

Demand Specific Terms of Lease and Time at Which Electrical Companies Will Agree to Outright Sale, Subject to Appraisal by State Railroad Commission.

Asserting that the most recent offer of the power companies to cooperate with the city in distributing electrical power is not specific on the three essential points, the special Power Committee of the City Council yesterday submitted to the three companies a counter-proposition which is also an ultimatum.

The committee—President Whiffen and Councilmen Betkouski, Conwell and McKenzie—turns down the companies' offer on the grounds that it does not contemplate a lease of the systems to the city under municipal operation and control, but that the city bind itself to purchase as soon as the companies can get the consent of their Trustees under the trust deeds provided and that date be within five years from the beginning of the lease.

Further, the committee suggests that if the companies fail to obtain consent to sell within five years that the city have the right to commence proceedings in eminent domain to condemn and acquire the distributing systems.

The committee asks an early answer from the companies as to whether they will enter into further negotiations along these lines.

From the developments in the power situation to date, it is quite safe to assert that the power companies cannot accept this offer of the committee. Officials and attorneys of the three companies have said as much and they assert that they cannot go beyond their recent proposition because of legal barriers that are insurmountable.

However, it is not understood that the ultimatum of the committee will be considered by the company, even in their refusal, as a termination of negotiations in the matter of municipal distribution of power.

QUIT IN HARBOR.

Whatever dissension exists in the Harbor Commission as the result of criticisms of Commissioners Glimmer and Gordon, none of it cropped out at the meeting yesterday. President Woodman and his colleagues held their heads together for several hours and there was anything but a stormy session. The schism between the president and his associates was discussed but no mention of it crept into the minutes.

Secretary Clarence Matson yesterday took a jaunt down to the harbor with Congressman J. R. Knowland, President Kinney of the Chamber of Commerce and Gen. Robert W. Lawless, the object being to give the Congressman an education on the details of harbor work and extent of the terminal. He will address a meeting of the Rivers and Harbors Commission in Washington next month and will use the data as a part of his exposition of harbor terminals on the Pacific Coast.

Commissioner Glimmer suggested that a campaign be revived to locate a lighthouse on Point Vicente, six miles west of Point Pinos, where there is now a light. An appropriation by Congress of $48,000 was killed two years ago for a similar light. It is the intention to move the light from Point Pinos, where it is not needed, now that a light shines on the government breakwater, to Point Vicente where seafaring men desire it. Letters were sent to the California delegation in Congress urging an appropriation for the lighthouse.

ENDORSES BIG WORK.

BOARD FAVORS WEST FIRST.

The Board of Park Commissioners yesterday went on record as favoring the widening and other improvements of West First street, the reason being that the board "looks with favor upon any project that will open traffic arteries for vehicles and street car travel and is of the opinion that the opening of such a thoroughfare across the Silver Lake parkway would in no wise injure the parkway, provided that the street be carried across the parkway upon a concrete bridge or viaduct."

The indorsement was sent to the City Council in the hope of bolstering its attitude in favor of the West First street work.

VULGAR DANCES.

POLICE WITHHOLD PERMITS.

Upon a report of Police License Inspector McPhillips, the Police Commission yesterday annulled the permit of the Edendale Auditorium to give public dances. He says he attended a dance given for the benefit of hairdressers and manicurists and it was "rotten." The dance hall is in the Edendale foothills and is considered an "undt place."

Chief of Police Sebastian filed charges against the social club of the Theatrical Mechanical Association at No. 271 South Spring street and the commission ordered the club officials to appear December 2 to show cause why their license should not be revoked. Police officers say that they bought liquor there, that they bought dance tickets and obtained liquor with them and saw gambling and vulgar dances in the place. Three days ago it was raided by the police, and once before the club was on the carpet before the Police Commission.

Charges against a pool room at No. 413 Front street, San Pedro, that gambling was permitted in the place, also will be heard December 2.

The hearing of the charges against Herbert Luson, a medium, went over to December 2.

The commission sustained the protest of property owners on Eighth street, between Broadway and Hill, against granting a saloon license for No. 223 West Eighth street.

CHARGES DISMISSED.

POLICE OFFICER SUSTAINED.

The Police Commission yesterday put its stamp of approval upon various acts of various officers who have been the target of charges. Fred C. Boden, a special operative, and Officer M. M. O'Garra, were charged with exceeding their authority in arresting Armand Goytino and Walter Jennings at Republic 11. A police investigation showed the officers were justified and the commission concurred in recommendations that the charges be dismissed.

Patrolman W. H. Stiles, who was mysteriously shot in a vacant house at Temple and Alvarado streets Sunday night, may or may not be on the police payroll while he is recovering from his injuries at the Sisters' Hospital. A report of Detective Beaumont and King accompanied Chief Sebastian's report to the Police Commission yesterday.

The slushes failed in any "old woman" who Stiles says directed him to the house, nor did they find any evidence of the struggle Stiles said he had with a gunman assailant. The commission ordered the Chief of Police to make a further investigation and state whether he felt Stiles should be retained on the payroll during the time he is off duty with injuries.

PREMIUMS TABOO.

REVIVE OLD POLICE ORDER.

Merchandise and chances on premiums given away by saloons with drinks were banished by the Police Commission yesterday, which also instructed the police to prohibit the acceptance by saloon keepers of pool-room or cigar-stand checks for drinks.

Two years ago the Police Commission passed a similar order, but recently it has been brought to the attention of that body that saloon keepers were giving away premiums with drinks, and accepting cigar-stand and poolroom checks in payment for drinks.

The court called Miss Quinn's attention to the numerous times when she might have sought help to free her from the attentions of Nicholson. Once only she made an appeal. That was to the clerk of the Victoria Hotel, "but he could not come to me because I was cut off the phone when he asked where I was," she said.

Honor Ex-Judge Silent.

The Board of Park Commissioners yesterday passed resolutions in eulogy of ex-Judge Charles Silent, who recently resigned from the board, deploring the loss to the city's service of "an able, efficient, faithful and honest park commissioner and public official," and assuring him of the very great esteem in which he is held by the board.

Hoaxers "Asphalt Trust."

Frank Reese, local representative of Warren Brothers of Boston, patented of bituminous pavement, addressed a long letter to the Council yesterday which in sizzling terms dealt with what he calls the "asphalt trust" in Los Angeles. He does many statements that have been made, says the only two streets in Los Angeles with bituminous pavement are Wilshire boulevard and Carondelet street, and that there is no truth in the assertion that 25 per cent. of money received for his pavement goes as royalties to his company. He says the bituminous is made in Southern California.

HARRIS TO HANG.

Burr Harris stood like a graven ebony statue yesterday as Judge Willis in a voice that shook with emotion sentenced the negro to be hanged for the slaying of Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay.

An immense crowd, composed mostly of negroes, gathered in the corridors, drawn there by the morbid desire to hear the words pronounced that would send a human being to the gallows.

When Judge Willis told Harris to stand up he did so without faltering. "You are sentenced to be hanged," said the court, "for the murder of a human being to wit, Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay. Within ten days from now you are to be taken to Folsom and there delivered to the custody of the warden, until your sentence is carried out."

Attorney Ceruti, who appeared for more nervous than his client, asked for a stay in which to file an appeal. This technical point is now the last thing standing between the negro, who confessed to a series of horrible crimes and attempted crimes, and the punishment that everyone except Editor Edmonds thinks he richly deserves.

LODGES NO COMPLAINT.

Diet-Atty. Fredericks did not make any complaint against David Evans, a member of the Civil Service Commission yesterday in regard to his competency to sit on the commission. It is believed that the matter will be left entirely with the supervisors and the county counsel, as the District Attorney's office is not directly interested in Evans or in his past record in Utah.

SAYS MARRIED TO SAVE FRIEND.

"QUEENIE MACK" TESTIFIES IN ANNULMENT SUIT.

Friend Might Have Been Sent Back to Prison if She Hadn't Wedded Man Who Pursued Her, She Declares—Wife Before Father, Court Rules—Others.

Loyalty to a friend who might be thrown into prison if she refused to marry the man who courted her ardently, was the keynote of the testimony of Mrs. Sarah A. Nicholson, known in the motion-picture world as Queenie Mack, in her suit yesterday to have her marriage with Cecil Nicholson annulled. It was a dramatic story as she told it, with hints of what she might have said if the details of the sensational Cheate-Anderson fiasco of a year ago had been dragged in.

Judge Monroe, however, confined the case to the period beginning, day of the marriage until the time there was crowded a world of misery, it seemed, for the girl-lodged woman.

Miss Quinn, as she preferred to call herself, said she was introduced to Nicholson by the clerk of the Victoria Hotel, where she was staying, in October, 1912. The clerk was a friend, and later on when she found a net bag cast around her, she jumped to him to help extricate her from the point of calling her by telephone at 5 o'clock in the morning.

Then Nicholson proposed marriage; Miss Quinn refused him, but Nicholson's time came when he found the girl in tears one day. She had arrived from the studio to find her room at the Victoria locked against her. This landlady, under a change of management, demanded overdue board. Miss Quinn, who was without funds, hence she went, and Nicholson soiled her. He evidently aquired with the landlady, as Miss Quinn was allowed to get her clothing and her trunk.

Then Nicholson accompanied her to the Hankershim, where she obtained a room. All of the night she walked the floor and kept the light burning. She was in despair. Apparently her only friend was Nicholson, who wanted to marry her. So he forced a reluctant "yes" from her. But Miss Quinn testified he helped her to break into the store, and she would not marry him, she said, he threatened to have William Edwards, a friend who was dear to her, arrested for breaking his parole. This meant prison for Edwards, and so Nicholson informed her, a charge against himself as a co-conspirator. He showed her a note she had written to Edwards. Edwards had been charged with passing fictitious checks.

Miss Quinn was between two fires, and she sought the way to save her friend. After drinking with Nicholson, she accompanied him to the office of an attorney, also to a minister, and was married November 8, 1912. The declared yesterday that she did not know the marriage was drunk, because there was no wedding ring.

There was a witness to the marriage, however—Miss Georgia Diehl, whose testimony will be heard when the case is resumed. If she is correct, Miss Quinn alleges that she was drugged. Miss Diehl was with her and Nicholson when the wine was drunk.

The court called Miss Quinn's attention to the numerous times when she might have sought help to free her from the attentions of Nicholson. Once only she made an appeal. That was to the clerk of the Victoria Hotel, "but he could not come to me because I was cut off the phone when he asked where I was," she said.

BUT TIRED OF ANNOYANCE.

Another clash between Robert W. Davis, a system of baking powder fame, and his wife, Jennie B. Davis, occurred in Judge Monroe's court yesterday when Davis filed an affidavit stating that he was not annoyed and harassed by his wife he is perfectly willing to pay her $1500 a month for the support of herself and their daughter, Lucetta. But he did not want to be tied down to the fifteenth of the month.

Davis, showing plainly the mark of ill-health, declared that he does not believe he is legally obliged to pay his wife the money. He was assisted by Attorney Meserve, who had judgment of Judge Conroy, who heard the separate maintenance suit against Mrs. Davis, relieved him from all legal obligations to pay her any alimony on the order.

He had made her a payment of $14,000 on November 1 last, and was brought into court on order to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in failing to pay the $1500 on the 15th. Attorney Delmas, counsel for Mrs. Davis, held that the order of the court was required. Meserve held that alimony stopped with the determination of the suit heard by Judge Conroy.

"However, Davis is willing to pay the money as the harassment must stop," said Meserve. Davis said he could send his wife a draft by the 15th of the month, if he knew where she was.

"She has a habit of secreting herself"—he began, when the court interrupted. He called Mrs. Davis to the stand and learned that she intends to make her home in Pasadena for six months. The alimony was ordered to be sent to No. 750 First street, Pasadena.

WIFE BEFORE FATHER.

FIRST CLAIM TO SUPPORT.

Declaring that she has lived four months on credit and that she should have an allowance of $250 a month properly to support herself and her child, Mrs. A. Burbank was allowed $100 a month by Judge Monroe yesterday, pending the trial of her divorce suit. She alleges extreme cruelty.

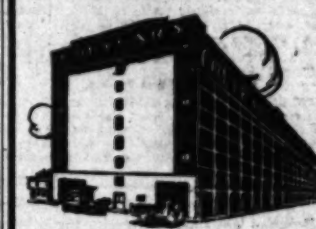

Burbank, who is a real estate operator, and is said by his wife to be worth $50,000, declared he had no money and that he owed his father. He was told by the court that the wife comes before the father in such cases.

Newmark was continued by Judge Monroe until December 11, owing to the absence of Mrs. Newmark. The marriage caused a futter in social circles, the defendant being a son of the wealthy Newmark family of this city.

LARSON SENTENCED FRIDAY.

Louis A. Larson was given another respite yesterday when the convicted wife murderer was taken back to his cell to remain until Friday, when Judge Craig will pronounce sentence upon him. A technical appeal may be taken in his case, but the District Attorney is confident that the man will suffer the extreme penalty unless pardoned by the Governor.

PAID UNDER PROTEST.

If a case pending before the Superior courts of San Francisco county is decided in a certain way, the State will return to the heirs of the Theodore Barhydt estate approximately $12,000. After drinking with Nicholson, she accompanied him to the office of an attorney, also to a minister, and was married November 8, 1912. The declared yesterday that she did not know the marriage was drunk, because there was no wedding ring.
